Lomita Man Is Killed As Auto Struck by Car

Wm. Kernish, 60, Dies Instantly in Grade Crossing Accident

William Kernish, 60, of 2623 Chestnut street, met with almost instant death Tuesday afternoon when his machine collided with a Pacific Electric car at the Carson street crossing on Truck boulevard. Rushed to nearby hospital by passersby, he died enroute, without having regained consciousness. Mr. Kernish had been entertaining a friend from Bisbee, Arizona was returning to Lomita from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Williams of Bellflower, with whom the visitor intended to stay for a few days.

Born in Liverpool, England, Mr. Kernish had lived in this country for 10 years, and in Lomita since 1911, except for brief intervals. Previous to moving to their present home six years ago Mr. and Mrs. Kernish had lived on West Weston street.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Grace Kernish and three daughters, Mrs. Evelyn of 1527 Eschelman avenue, Mrs. Ella Williams of 1430 S. Main, Mrs. Mary Hively of Los Angeles and a sister who lives in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 and Towne chapel, Compton, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. E. E. Clark, former pastor of the Community church, Interment at Roosevelt Memorial Park.

Postpone Concert At High School

The fourth concert of the series sponsored by the Schumann Society of the Torrance High School scheduled for next Wednesday night, January 26, at the Torrance High school, has been postponed. Mr. Simonsen's concert to some date in the near future which date, however, has not been determined upon. The high school is having considerable difficulty in sponsoring this series of concerts due to the lack of cooperation on the part of the bureau through which the artists have been booked.

Episcopal Parish Officers Elected

The annual parish meeting of Christ Episcopal Mission was held in the parish hall Jan. 12, with Rev. H. H. Kelly of San Pedro presiding. Rev. Kelly will be rector in charge of this mission, beginning with the first Sunday in February. Election of officers resulted as follows: A. W. Handel, warden; H. N. Shuart, clerk; J. Sprout, treasurer. Besides the election of officers, formal application was made for the mission to be received into the convention of the diocese of Los Angeles.

Short Story Class Is Offered Here

Persons interested in retaining an English class at night school are asked to enroll in the short story class being offered next semester on Thursdays from 7 to 9. The English class, first semester was discontinued for lack of the sufficient number of students. Training in correct form of writing and speaking English will be given in connection with the short story class.

Deed Will Settle Santa Fe Street Crossing Problems

That the deed to the Santa Fe right of way in Torrance, as granted by the Dominguez Land Corporation, contains a provision setting forth that all street crossings of record shall remain in force, was the statement of City Engineer Frank Leonard to the Board of Trustees Tuesday night.

This provision, it is declared, will enable the city to obtain crossings at Sonoma, Eldorado, Sierra and other streets without permission from the railroad company. City Attorney Briney has been instructed to petition the commission for a crossing at Sonoma street, and other requests will follow as crossings are needed, it is stated.

Choral Club Will Stage Cantata Here; Singers Are Sought

The Choral Club of Torrance is making plans for the presentation of a cantata and is urging men and women singers to join the organization. Meetings are held each Thursday night from 7:30 to 9:30 in the music room of the high school building.

Brian Welch New Director of Big L. A. Institution

Brian K. Welch, president of the Dominguez Land Corporation last week was elected a director of the Pacific Southwest Bank of Los Angeles. This banking group has the largest amount of available capital in Los Angeles. Mr. Welch is now and has been for several years a director of the First National Bank of Torrance.

COURT NOTES

George Watson Wednesday morning pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace and destroying property. City Recorder Rippey fined him $500 on the first count, suspending $250. A fine of $500 on the second count was suspended on condition that Watson pay for damage done to tires on a car owned by the Torrance Performing Company.

A preliminary hearing on a charge of assault with intent to murder ended when Deputy District Attorney Fee moved that the charge be dismissed on account of a lack of evidence. The charges were filed as a result of an altercation last week.

Joe Crane, alias Fred Porter, charged by Detective J. R. Knott with the theft of two lots of the extinguishers belonging to the Union Oil Company, was given a suspended sentence of 180 days on one count, and 90 days in jail on the second count.

K. Uyeda paid a fine of $25 for having undersized abalone in his possession and K. Sumiga, T. Namigoshi and H. Kagumota were each fined $25 for catching lobsters out of season. The fines were paid.

MAKE GASOLINE CONTRACT

The trustees Tuesday night instructed the mayor and city clerk to enter into a year's contract for the purchase of gasoline from the Standard Oil Company at a maximum price of 15 1/2 cents a gallon. If gasoline decreases in price the city will pay the lower price, but remains protected against increases.

Mrs. W. W. Dyer of 428 West Camino Real, Redondo, will return to her home tomorrow from the Torrance hospital. Mrs. Dyer, who had her right kidney removed two weeks ago, is convalescing rapidly.

I says to Hudd

I got the radio battery charged so we won't miss any of the channel swim.

And Hudd says, yeh, that's what you do with everything, have it charged.

So along about two o'clock p. m. we heard the announcer say Young had got tangled up in the kelp beds.

And Hudd says, oh migosh, I'm going to lose my bet. If he had to get in a bed, why couldn't he wait and get in a Simmons bed or anyhow a two-tone walnut with hand decorations at 33.50.

And pretty soon Young got through the kelp and won the $25.000.

And Hudd says he could buy the dresser to match at 38.50 and have money left even.
